

Hasbro Children's and Boston Children's Hospital partner with Seasons Corner Market for Shell's "The Giving Pump" To Offer Consumers the Opportunity to Use Their Fill-Up for Good

Consumers can visit Seasons Corner Market to fill up at designated fueling pumps to support Hasbro Children's and Boston's Children's Hospital

LINCOLN, RI, Aug. 1, 2025 – Hasbro Children's and Boston Children's Hospital partner with Seasons Corner Market on the return of Shell's "The Giving Pump" initiative this year. This drive is part of Shell's Force for Good project, aimed at driving positive change within local communities through philanthropy.

From August 1 until September 30, 2025, every gallon of gas purchased at the specially marked pumps at Seasons Corner Market stations across New England will contribute to Hasbro Children's and Boston Children's Hospital.

Sandy Delli Carpini, Chief Marketing Officer at Seasons Corner Market, is proud to bring back 'The Giving Pump' initiative, saying "We encourage everyone to choose 'The Giving Pump' at their next fuel stop to extend their support to these remarkable hospitals. Our Seasons Corner Market stations are delighted to be part of this initiative supporting our local children."

Participation in The Giving Pump charity initiative last year saw Seasons Corner Market raise a total of $84,715.83. The designated pumps at Seasons Corner Market will be readily identifiable by vibrant signs, encouraging customers to contribute to these local children's hospitals at no extra cost.

Shell's Giving Pump initiative spans nearly 6,500 stations across the U.S., making it easy for consumers everywhere to make a difference. To locate a participating station, visit shell.us/givingpump.

Since the inception of the Force for Good program, Shell has spotlighted the contributions its wholesalers have made to their communities, extending beyond just fuel quality and loyalty. The Giving Pump has seen Shell Wholesalers and retailers support over 750 charities.
